MEET THE BUDDY GUYS!

Sunee Dhaliwal (CTV's Comedy Now, Just For Laughs Montreal, CBC Debaters etc) plays a second generation Punjabi man slowly trying to break free from his familial & cultural expectations. This is especially difficult because Sunee still lives at home.

Cliff Prang (Cliff House Events, Panic Squad, Vancouver TheatreSports) is Sunee's best friend who wants nothing more than to fit into the Punjabi family, community and culture. Cliff, 'the token white guy', together with Sunee's help will stop at nothing to achieve this goal and put the Asian back in Caucasian.

Buddy Guys is set in a South Asian community and seeks to relate to the 1.2M Punjabi Diaspora and their friends, neighbours & co-workers. Join the Buddy Guys in their home, on the basketball court, at the Bhangra Battle, on the Kabaddi field, at the family run sweet shop, at Santa's Workshop, etc. We are 100% confident that there is something for everybody in this hilarious comedy of errors and celebration of diversity. #BeDifferent #BeCanadian
