

Setting :

Stanley Park is one of the most beautiful parks in all of Canada. Rain or Shine

Stanley Park is 1001 acres, making it 158 acres bigger than Central Park in Manhattan...

Story:

Our two distinct story lines allow us to have a season arc for each character, as well as one for each episode.

Scripted Improv:

We've created a loose script with ideal conditions for our team to be able to work outside the lines, as long as it furthers and enhances the story.

Really? LARRY

CLAIRE I'm just tall, I guess.

LARRY Me too. For my family, I'm short.

LARRY LARRY looks back through his papers as he pumps up his chair (tree) times.

LARRY So... what do you think you can bring to the park rangers?

CLAIRE Well, I have a degree in criminology top of depart until nearly ground!

Yes. We was an e dropping

Your not park dowr

No, sir.

Do you lik

Handwritten note: (to Claire)

Audience:

We can reach a wide audience with smart comedy built from characters and situations.

Did you know that Stanley Park was named the "Top park in the World" by TripAdvisor?

Synopsis

Ranger Bay is a half-hour comedy revolving around Claire's fight to redeem herself and her reputation, by joining the Park Rangers in downtown Vancouver. It takes place almost entirely in and around the city's many parks, trails and seawall paths. Claire is our insight to this world that seems to inhabit a fair amount of odd people, but with a common love of their jobs. Well, at the least, the environment of their jobs.

Ranger Bay

After police cadet Claire is blamed for starting the Canucks Cup riot, she embarks on a path to redemption as a Ranger at Stanley Park.

The Cast

the Team

Tom Hackett - Director/ Producer

Jamie Hrushowy - Writer/ Producer

Mike Scully - Writer/ Producer

therangerbay@gmail.com
Twitter @therangerbay
www.facebook.com/RangerBay

A Lone Ranger in the Park City

