MAPLE U

Genre: Comedy/Sketch
 Writer: Justin Delhon
 Showrunner: Amir Chang
 Producers: Brett Farquharson, ComedyCoup

Logline:
 Students from all corners of Maple U converge in their love of performing sketch comedy and skipping classes.

Synopsis:
 It's the first day of school at Maple U and the campus is anything but buzzing. No one looks happy to be there and it is pretty clear why. The school has no money, no credentials and no hope.

Matthew Waters is the new guy on campus. His dream of reopening his closed video rental store must go through Maple U. Matthew makes an impression right away at the school as the sarcastic dolt but his luck with the ladies is lacking. He tries to hit on the hot drama major Mary but she is not having any of it.

Adam on the other hand is not in the market for a girlfriend, he is just trying to survive at the school. When Adam meets Sarah she puts him on edge instantly. She brings out the best and worst in him all at once.

Franklin has the dream of writing sketch comedy and bringing it to the school but he needs to go through Mr. Dalton to do that. As a strict no nonsense drama teacher, sketch comedy is not on his list of approved material.

These misfits must come together and show their chops in this hilarious look at campus life and the struggle to fit in.

Audience
 Maple U will appeal to the masses as we have brought together men and women of all ages in one campus. This show will bring the funny in so many different ways including sketch and situational comedy.

Teacher Comments
ENGLISH	F	Justin spends more time playing minecraft on his laptop than doing his algebra. If A + B equals C, here's an F!
ART	D-	I'm not sure if English is Justin's first language, but I'm sure you can find a better grasp of it in foreign films. Bare minimum grade so I don't have to teach you.
GYM	C+	Excelled in the figure drawing portion of the course unfortunately Justin, you can't draw nude woman for every assignment.
SCIENCE	D	There was that time you caught the ball in dodge ball. By the way, the pool is not your urinal.
DRAMA	F	No Mitochondria is not the answer to every question. And NO, Charles Darwin is NOT your father.
Other Comments:	A+	Justin your portrayal of Lady Macbeth is the best I have ever seen.
