AFTER DARK

#ComedyCoup

Toronto After Dark is sketch comedy evolved.

Wayne and Shuster, SCTV, Kids in The Hall – These legendary sketch performers shaped the identity of Canadian comedy. It's time to bring that identity into the 21st century with a format of sketch comedy that has never been done before. This is Toronto After Dark.

Toronto After Dark is a hybrid series: linear storytelling and sketch comedy all seamlessly woven into one half-hour. Each week, we follow our main character Ron (a socially inept insomniac) on his nightly wanderings while six-member sketch troupe, Cash Grab, brings all of the city's "characters" to life.

Who is Cash Grab? These six friends formed a sketch troupe while studying at Humber College's comedy program. Comprised of award winners, Yuk Yuk's jokesters, and minimum-wage earners, Cash Grab's many personalities result in a dynamic comedic experience.

Why Toronto? As Canadians, we are very proud of being recognized as a multicultural nation. Not only is Toronto a visually stunning city, it is also the cultural hub of Canada as one of the most diverse cities in the world. But can you name a Canadian comedy with a half-Filipino protagonist? Without Google? Toronto After Dark will give you that and more. All aspects of Canada's identity can be found somewhere in Toronto... After Dark.

Toronto After Dark recently advanced to the top 55 of CBC's Comedy Coup which started with over 300 concepts. The winner will receive $500,000 to fund a half-hour special to air on CBC. The voting for the top 15 opens Thursday November 6th, and ends Sunday November 9th.
