Manitoba Made "How To Do Everything Gooder" Needs Your Votes To Make TV Dream A Reality

Posted on 11/7/2014 11:09:00 AM by Kristin Marand

A group of Manitoba creatives is trying to win half a million dollars to make a new kind of tv comedy series. They're competing against teams from all across the country and they could use your help!

Hosted by local comedian Matt Falk, How To Do Everything Gooder is a life-improvement reality type show where the host doesn't really know what he's talking about. The show would use both actors and real people in a comedy of errors! Think Holmes on Homes (if Holmes didn't know anything about houses) meets Just For Laughs Gags.

If you'd like to see what How To Do Everything Gooder is all about, you can check out a live performance this Sunday 7pm at Providence University College in Otterburne Manitoba (about 50 km south of Winnipeg). The event is FREE and will feature not only comedy but performances from renowned Elvis impersonator Cory Remple, wonderist Chris Funk and musician Sheena Grobb among others.

How To Do Everything Gooder is competing in the Comedy Coup and have made it to the top 55 but they need your votes to make it to the top 15. Voting takes place Nov 6-9. The top 15 will be announced Nov 10th. Vote here.
